

Rippledown

Courses for Adults and Educators Winter/Spring 2011

Established in 1976, Rippledown is the South East's leading independent environmental education centre. Rippledown offers great opportunities for children and adults to reconnect with and learn more about the natural world.

If you would like to take part in a course, fill out the form on the reverse and return it to Rippledown. The Permaculture and Bushcraft courses are residential and include accommodation and full board for two days. For more information see www.rippledown.com or call 01304 364 854.

Confidence in Learning Outside the Classroom

1 Feb
11 Feb

Confidence in LOTC is designed to help teachers develop their knowledge of fieldwork skills. The course is offered in two parts over two non-consecutive days. Each part is a self contained course, but you will benefit most by attending both days.

Introduction to Permaculture

25-27 Mar

Learn how to use permaculture principles and practice for your own life, your workplace and your community.

Bushcraft

9-10 April

Learn key bushcrafts including fire building, mammal tracking, shelter building and much more on this fun-filled weekend.
