

The Specialist Schools and Academies Trust – Rural Dimension Conference

The sixth rural dimension conference will take place 29th – 30th March 2011 at the Brackenhurst Campus of Nottingham Trent University.

Set in 200 hectares of beautiful country estate it provides the perfect outdoor classroom. With its animal unit, environment centre, equestrian centre, farm, glasshouse complex and veterinary nursing centre it offers a unique range of learning contexts.

The theme of the conference is 'Enterprise in the Rural Dimension'. The conference will provide practitioners with opportunities to:

- develop practical ideas for schools /academies on all aspects of enterprise through the rural dimension
- discover new ways to develop the outdoor classroom across the curriculum
- try their hand in a range of practical workshop activities
- network and share good practice with lead practitioners, colleagues and stakeholder partners
- find out the positive impacts that the rural dimension is having with learners and within communities.
